

ANDREW MOLEY

Chief Financial Officer

As CFO, Andrew leads the firm's administrative and operational activities and has overall responsibility for Lightspeed's financial reporting.

Andrew brings extensive operating experience to the CFO role, having helped develop both public and private companies throughout his career. On the public side, Andrew served as CFO of eGreetings Network (EGRT) and helped take the company public; he later took over as CEO of the company until its sale to American Greetings (AM). He was also EVP and CFO of CMC Industries (CMCI), a publicly-traded EMS company. Most recently, Andrew was CFO of three venture-backed startups. He began his career at Mercer Management Consulting.

Andrew holds an MBA from Stanford University and a BS in Economics from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
