

DAVID GUSSARSKY

Managing Director

David joined Lightspeed in 2008 and focuses on the firm's investment efforts in Israel, with a concentration on the communications, semiconductors, and cleantech sectors. David brings nine years of operating experience and eight years of venture capital experience to his role at Lightspeed.

Before joining Lightspeed, David was a partner at BRM Capital, an Israeli venture capital firm with $150 million under management. There, he focused on investments in the communications and components sectors. Prior to BRM, he served as CEO at Paspas2, an Internet application service provider. Previously, he served as corporate attorney at Rosensweig & Co., a leading Israeli commercial law firm, and before that, he was the head of software development teams for the Israel Defense Forces and later at Edunetics, where he managed a programming team that produced software products for the U.S. market.
